PRIMARY to SECONDARY

For students in junior and senior school, storage options and the solidity of work desks & chairs is as important as the look and feel of classroom interiors. Our designers combine the best of both and adapt them to your needs, helping schools make studying fun and engaging. Research into children's behaviour gives us further insight into ideal design options for educational furniture.

Dovetail to the rescue!

It had been a dream to change the furniture of our school, from a teacher centered model to a student centered one.

Finding the right furniture that would fit within our budget was a real nightmare and a marathon challenge. We tried many vendors but none could provide us with a solution to enable us to comfortably fit 66 students in a class.

Finally, Dovetail came up with a design that could fit 55. With a day-long meeting at the factory and adjustments in the design we reached the desired number of 66.

Thanks to the people at Dovetail we were able to keep our word to the parents and in a matter of just three months change the furniture of all the 20 classrooms in our school. Not a small task indeed!

Today our school has a totally different look. The kids are excited, the parents are thrilled and the teachers are so enthused about teaching in this redesigned classroom environment. Thank you Dovetail - you make dreams come true.

Harvest International School

We are very happy for having associated with Dovetail since our inception. They address all our needs in terms of innovative layouts, imaginative designs, safe and high quality furniture for all age groups of our school.

Their furniture has enhanced the beauty of our school interiors as they are aesthetically pleasing, child friendly and strong. They brighten up our classrooms and make them visually appealing for our children as well as teachers. Most of our parents and visitors have admired and complimented these.

Dovetail furniture is purpose built and ergonomically designed and hence we find them very comfortable. In a way it has enhanced active teaching and learning in our stimulating international school environment.

I have worked with many schools/ educational institutions in India and abroad. My personal feeling is that Dovetail has transformed the concept of school interiors. Our labs, library and classrooms have undergone a revolution with this furniture in terms of functionality, durability and easy maintenance. Most of all, we are very happy with their after sales service which is the key factor because of which I have recommended them to many other schools.
